

DA YOUTH FEDERAL CONSTITUTION

1. Founding Provisions & Political Principles

1.1. The Democratic Alliance Youth (DA Youth) is a formation of the Democratic Alliance (DA), established in accordance with clause 10.1 of the Federal Constitution.

1.2. In accordance with clause 10.1.3 of the Federal Constitution, the DA Youth commits itself to the Vision, Principles, Programme of Action and Mission Statement of the DA, as contained in Chapter 1 of the Federal Constitution.

1.3. In addition to clause 1.2 above, political activity of the DA Youth is specifically directed to:

1.3.1. mobilizing people between the ages of 15 and 31 in support of the DA,

1.3.2. providing an enabling environment for young people to engage in politics,

1.3.3. identifying and promoting issues relating to the youth in South Africa,

1.3.4. developing and nurturing future leaders.

2. The Constitution

- 2.1. The Federal Constitution and this Constitution shall be binding and act as the principal guiding documents for all DA Youth members and structures.
- 2.2. In terms of clause 10.1.2 of the Federal Constitution, this Constitution comes into force once it is approved by the DA Federal Council.
- 2.3. In terms of clause 10.1.3 of the Federal Constitution, that constitution takes precedence over this Constitution. In the event of a dispute, the Federal Constitution will prevail.
- 2.4. Any amendments to the DA Youth Federal Constitution:
 - 2.4.1. must be approved and adopted by the DA Youth Federal Congress by a majority of no less than two thirds of its members present and voting.
 - 2.4.2. must be submitted in writing to DA Youth Branches and DA Student Organisation (DASO) Branches at least 30 days prior to the Federal Youth Congress.
 - 2.4.3. shall only come into force once such amendments have been accepted and ratified by the DA Federal Council.

3. DA Youth Membership

- 3.1. Members of the DA may join the DA Youth if they are older than 15 and younger than 31 years of age.
- 3.2. There shall be no additional fee for joining the DA Youth.
- 3.3. Members of the DA Youth must:
 - 3.3.1. abide by the Federal Constitution and this constitution, and
 - 3.3.2. be members of the DA.

4. Termination or Cessation of DA Youth Membership

- 4.1. A person ceases to be a DA Youth member when he or she:

- 4.1.1. reaches his or her 31st birthday,
- 4.1.2. tenders his or her resignation as a member of the DA Youth in writing or openly declares his/her intention to resign,
- 4.1.3. ceases to be a member of the DA in terms of section 3.5 of the DA Federal Constitution, or
- 4.1.4. has been found guilty of misconduct as defined in section 2.5.3 of the Federal Constitution and has had his or her membership of the Party terminated, after a disciplinary process contemplated in Chapter 9 of that Constitution.

5. DA Youth (DAY) Branches

- 5.1 The DA Youth will strive to establish a DA Youth branch in every constituency in South Africa.
- 5.2 A DA Youth branch is established and can be disestablished in terms of clause 3.13 of the Federal Constitution, with the necessary changes.
- 5.3 The chairperson of the DA Youth branch is an ex officio member of the constituency executive of the constituency that corresponds with that branch. He or she will report to the constituency executive on the activities and programme of action of the DA Youth in that constituency.

6. DA Students Organisation (DASO) Branches

- 6.1 DA Youth members attending tertiary institutions may establish a DA Students Organisation (DASO) formation for the purposes of political activity.
- 6.2 DA members who attend institutions of higher learning are eligible for membership in DASO formations.
- 6.3 A DASO branch is established and can be disestablished in terms of clause 3.13 of the Federal Constitution with the necessary changes.

7 Provincial and Regional Structures

7.1 The DA Youth will, at the same time as a Provincial Congress or Regional AGM of the DA is held, hold a DA Youth Provincial Congress or DA Youth Regional AGM, as the case may be, at which the following office bearers must be elected:

- A Provincial Youth Leader or Regional Youth Leader; and
- A Provincial or Regional Youth Executive Committee consisting of no more than five members.

7.2 The Provincial Youth Leader and the Regional Youth Leader will be an ex officio member of the Provincial or Regional Executive, as the case may be. These leaders will report to such executives on the activities and programme of action of the youth in the province or region concerned.
